HOW IT STANDS.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 18 .- The president today denied himself to all visitors and worked on the Chillan correspondence. He is preparing his message to congress The Chillan minister had an interview with Blaine lasting at hour. Rumor is circulated to the effect the Chilian minister notified this government that an apology from Chill would be forthcoming. This could not be confirmed. Cot. Remy, naval judge advocate general, will return to this city tomorrow or Wednesday with concluding testimony.

NO WABLIKE NEWS.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 17 .- A dilligent inquiry at the war department fails to disclose any warlike preparations on the part of army men, except the work on the fortificationaround San Francisco, but the work was begun last spring, before then were any suggestions of a war with Chill. For the comfort of Californians, who have been represented as defenseless. It may be stated, or the authority of ordnance officers that the Golden Gate is defended by some fifteen-inch guos, which, though smooth-bores, are yet mos formidable. The experiments made at Sandy Hook with guns of this size have shown that a powder charge may be largely increased. compared with what is regarded as safe charges, during war. Improve ments in the slow-burning powders made this possible, and now a fifteeninch smooth bore with a charge of 130 pounds powder will throw a projectile weighing 450 pounds a trate ten inches of armor, and the that place. Chillans have as yet no vessel that could withstand such projections. A curious outcome of the present agitation was the publication by the war department yesterday of a con vention framed as long ago as 1864. Chill have since signified their ad hesion. In view of the allegations which have been made to the effect that the Chillaus practice inhuman bodies, it may be reassuring to our was for the "amelioration of the wounded in arms in the field of battle." By some oversight this conficially published. It guarantees neutrality and protection of the ambulance and hospital corps, and provides that wounded or sick soldiers shall be taken care of without regard to nationality. It also contains ample provisions for the recovering of wounded or wrecked sallors, and, in brief, throws around the combatants every possible guarantee of humane treatment in the event of their being wounded or captured.
